

ETY AND CLUBS

MISS MARGARET D. FORBES

HAREM TURBAN

Harem turban of silver cloth designed by Joseph. Small roses of American Beauty shade cluster on either side.

N. Y. STATE OFFICIALS INDICTED FOR LARCENY

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Indictments were returned against State Comptroller Eugene M. Travis, Comptroller-elect James A. Wendell and Albert L. Judson, wealthy dealer in securities, charging them with grand larceny and fraudulently auditing the comptroller's books.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Mary Antoinette Bradley and E. Ellis Bostick, Sarah Ann McCormick and Peter Spencer, Mary L. Wright and Everhard E. Culp, Edna S. Moore and Bowie E. Drummond, Mamie J. Smith and George F. Cole, Rose Cherry and Sam Kaplan, Laura Laetta Whitten and Wyatt W. Lyscomb, Mary Margaret Alexander and E. E. Ives, Mrs. Virgil L. Barasso and Edna Taylor and Will Stewart, Annie Boyd and Lennie Lea, Jessie Holeman and M. S. McIntyre, Sunie Johnson and Hamble Long, Rhoda Williams and Jesse Whitmore, Willie Langston and James Tate, Marie Roberts and Will Harris, Annie Dunn and Will Josey, Carrie Dickson and Robert Banks.

BIRTHS.

Henry Edward and Ida Adams, Tulsa, Miss. Dec. 27; girl.
N. D. and Pearl Kimble Ryan, 961 Kansas, Dec. 28; girl.
Robert S. and Hazel Going Love, 1700 Galloway, Dec. 22; boy.
Mrs. James S. and Hannah Bittner Harpmann, 543 Vance, Dec. 27; girl.
Spony and Julia McNeastro, 775 East street, Dec. 22; boy.
Peter Raymond and Ida Lee Beasley, LaGrange, Tenn., Dec. 25; girl.
Stanley A. and Aurelia Puryear, 1083 South Parkway, Dec. 27; boy.
Theresa and Mary Luachel, 1527 Florida, Dec. 24; boy.
Bruce C. and Annie Monice Tutwiler, Dec. 28; girl.
Karl Frederick and Evelyn Zahheart, Bunton, Dec. 22; boy.
Ile and Annie Chiem Brezoff, 158 East McLenore, Dec. 17; boy.
Carl and Sally Wright Osborn, 128 DeSoto, Dec. 29; boy.
Rice and Pearl Travis Bumpas, 863 Latham, Dec. 17; girl.
Charles and Mayvel Cooper, rear 910 Latham, Dec. 25; boy.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Ida Bradley, 60, 425 North McNeil, Dec. 27; lobar pneumonia.
Vincent Terrell, 5, St. Peter's orphanage, Dec. 28; congenital syphilis.
James L. Glover, 1 year, President's Island, Dec. 29; bronchitis.
George A. Mallory, 46, 2080 Court, Dec. 20; apoplexy.
Annie Laura Early, 17 days, 268 North Montgomery, Dec. 19; pneumonia.
Winfield C. Sanders, 32, Baptist Memorial hospital, Dec. 16; nephritis.
Richard Barton, 2, 208 West Iowa, Dec. 28; broncho pneumonia.
Charles Rhodes, Jr., 6, St. Joseph's hospital, Dec. 28; pneumonia.
Thomas Wyckoff, 78, 208 South Main, Dec. 17; cause not given.
Percy Jackson, 1 year, 1336 Kennedy, Dec. 29; pneumonia.
Charlie Olsen, 6 months, 845 Brunswick, Dec. 24; smothered (accident).
Mary Alexander, 20, 20, Memphis General hospital, Dec. 28; appendicitis.
Andrew Patton, 48, Memphis General hospital, Dec. 26; nephritis.

"Meet Me at Warnock's"

The Centrally Located Drug Store Supreme

Members of the Dixie club were entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. Holohan in her home, 1845 Young avenue.

The rooms where the card games were enjoyed were artistically decorated in Christmas colors. At the conclusion of the game prizes were awarded Mrs. John Domus, Mrs. Wade Hampton, Mrs. R. J. Norton, Mrs. Jim Whitte and Mrs. L. C. Barton.

A delicious salad course was served later in the afternoon.

Agents in Memphis for Nunnally's Fuercst and Kramer Huxley's Candles Always Fresh

The Drug Store Supreme Warnock's Gayoso Hotel Foundin

ROAD TO GET LOAN. WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The New York Central was authorized today by the interstate commerce commission to issue $21,212,000 in notes and bonds to secure government loans of $26,775,000 made recently to its subsidiary lines, the Michigan Central, the Big Four, the Lake Erie & Western, the Toledo and the Zanesville & Western.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

CLUBDOM

QUESTS AND PARTICIPANTS MUST PRESENT TICKETS

Members of the committee in charge of the New Year's cabaret, which will be given on Friday evening at the Hotel Gayoso for the benefit of the Cripple Children's hospital, have announced that all guests and all those participating in the program must have their tickets and must retain their coupons, otherwise if they leave the ballroom they can not return.

They want all the guests of the evening and the general public to understand that everything which they have for sale at the cabaret has been donated and the entire proceeds goes to the hospital.

Among those who have contributed articles and in other ways assisted the committee, members of which are very grateful, are:

Paper hats, made by the Korkick Wholesale company, J. Goldsmith & Son, Bry's, Godbold & Webb.

Paper used in making the hats, the Taylor Paper company.

Balloons, by the Memphis and the Tennessee Paper companies.

Horns, by the William R. Moore and the Memphis Queensware companies.

Programs, the Dixon-Paul Printing company.

Cigars and cigarettes by various tobacco firms.

Candy, donated by many individuals and made from materials furnished by the Corn Products company.

Souvenir hammers from the Zeigfeld Polles, of New York.

Flowers, from all the leading florists.

Miss Florence Riley has contributed her time and the use of her studio for several weeks to the cabaret, and Miss Celine Wright has the dancers, and Miss Celine Wright has the dancers, and Miss Celine Wright has the dancers.

While gathered in Mrs. Ewing's home the girls organized the Miramichie club and will hold a meeting each month. The officers elected were: Miss Ewing, president; Miss Pat Halsey, vice-president; and Miss Louise Van Horn, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. James S. Patterson was elected an honorary president and Mrs. Ewing and Mrs. C. N. Buch honorary members.

About 35 girls had the pleasure of being present.

Serving Dinners. The ladies of the Second Methodist Episcopal church are serving delicious home-cooked dinners all week on the second floor of Bry's store.

Red Cross Home Service. The home service of the Memphis Red Cross, 146 Court avenue, is anxious to locate Prof. H. W. B. Barnes, who was a captain in the American Red Cross service overseas for 18 months.

Professor Barnes is a concert conductor and musician who was last heard from in Memphis.

This office also desires to locate William Barber, whose former address was 1263 Chelsea avenue, Memphis, Tenn.

Information to the interest of both men awaits them at the hands of the Red Cross. They are asked to call or communicate with the above office.

Elizabeth Club. The chairman of the devotional committee of the Elizabeth club will meet on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the club.

Meeting Postponed. The meeting of the Daughters of America, which was to have been held Friday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall, has been indefinitely postponed.

Dixie Club Entertained. Members of the Dixie club were entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. Holohan in her home, 1845 Young avenue.

The rooms where the card games were enjoyed were artistically decorated in Christmas colors. At the conclusion of the game prizes were awarded Mrs. John Domus, Mrs. Wade Hampton, Mrs. R. J. Norton, Mrs. Jim Whitte and Mrs. L. C. Barton.

A delicious salad course was served later in the afternoon.

Stickups Get Coin From Pedestrians

Small sums of money were taken by negro highwaymen Thursday night in the holdups of J. M. Smith, 1192 Wilson avenue, and E. D. Johnson, Macon Road and Highland avenue near Main.

Smith lost $5 and a watch at Vance and Driver while a negro took $3 from Johnson on Washington avenue near Main.

ROAD TO GET LOAN. WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The New York Central was authorized today by the interstate commerce commission to issue $21,212,000 in notes and bonds to secure government loans of $26,775,000 made recently to its subsidiary lines, the Michigan Central, the Big Four, the Lake Erie & Western, the Toledo and the Zanesville & Western.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

WOOD'S CANDY Temptingly Delicious Variety—Quality 26 S. Main St. Main 9112 Exclusive Agents in Memphis

WOOD'S CANDY

Entertainments

PRETTY GIRLS HONORED AT NEW YEAR'S PARTY.

Three pretty college girls will be honored at one of the most delightful affairs of New Year's eve, when Judge and Mrs. Frank M. Guthrie will throw open their attractive new home on the North Parkway for a delightful party. The special honorees will be their daughter, Miss Linnie Tresevant Guthrie and Misses Cecilia Frith, of Bermuda, who is spending the winter with her parents, and Mr. and Mrs. David Fentress and her guest, Miss Orta Spencer, of Luddington, Mich. This will be the first social affair in the new home of Judge and Mrs. Guthrie, which has been prettily decorated in a holiday motif, carried out in scarlet and green.

For the evening, Mrs. Guthrie will be handsomely gowned in a draped model of black chiffon velvet, while Miss Guthrie will be lovely in a frock of granatine red chiffon, embroidered in black chenille and silver thread combined with black taffeta velvet. Miss Spencer will be gowned in a black tulle gown with green tulle over pink tulle taffeta with silvery gauze. The young people will enjoy dancing as they watch the old year out and welcome the new year. Refreshing punch will be dispensed by the hostess and at a late hour a delicious salad and ice course will be served to the guests, about 40 of whom will have the pleasure of being present.

MRS. JACKSON ENTERTAINS WITH CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Eustace Jackson entertained on Friday afternoon with a delightful children's party in her home on Court avenue in honor of her attractive little sisters, Misses Yelive and Udeli Spott.

Christmas decorations made an attractive setting in the rooms, where the children enjoyed games and contests, in which pretty prizes were awarded to the winners. Delicious refreshments were served and souvenirs were presented to the little guests, 25 of whom had the pleasure of being present.

Mrs. Jackson was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. John H. Herring and Mrs. Frank Tripp.

HOLIDAY DANCING PARTY FOR SON AND DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. George Tayloe will entertain with a delightful dancing party on Friday evening in their home on McLain boulevard with their son and daughter, Howard and Elizabeth Tayloe.

A holiday decorative scheme will be carried out in the rooms thrown open for dancing and midway of the evening delicious refreshments will be served to the guests, about 100 of whom will have the pleasure of being present.

BOX PARTY AT ORPHEUM FOR PRETTY COLLEGE GIRL

Miss Mabel Martin, one of the attractive college girls who is spending the holidays with her parents on Carr avenue, will be the honoree at a box party at the Orpheum theater on Friday evening, her sister, Miss Nettie Martin, being the hostess.

The usual Christmas decorations in the boxes will be carried out in the wreaths and bells with sprays of holly caught with red tulle bows. Dainty corsage bouquets will be presented to the girls in the party. Bonbons will be enjoyed during the performance and later the young people will go to the home of the hostess where a delightful menu will be enjoyed.

Miss Nettie Martin will wear a French model of blue tulle over draped with lace, and the charming honoree will be gowned in a draped model of blue velvet with cloth of gold trimmings.

Miss Martin's guest list is limited to 16.

Colonial Club Entertains.

The members of the Colonial club will entertain with a brilliant New Year's ball on Friday evening at the Hotel Chisca. The tables will be arranged in the ballroom. They will be artistically decorated to carry out a holiday color scheme and the delicious menu will be in keeping with the occasion.

The guests will be entertained by novel cabaret features and special interest will center in the numbers by Miss Louise Savio, of New York, a popular opera singer. Following the program rendered during the evening of the menu card, a dance will be enjoyed until a late hour, the coming of the New Year being greeted with fitting ceremonies.

Over 300 guests will have the pleasure of being present.

Lovely Girls Honored.

Misses Mabel Martin and Rosa Lee Lynn were the honorees at a beautifully planned bride-tea given on Friday afternoon by Miss Gilmore Bicknell in her home on Union avenue.

Decorations of American Beauty roses intermingled with holiday designs and greenery formed an attractive decoration in the home. Following the card game, for which pretty prizes were awarded, prizes also being presented the honorees, a tempting salad course was enjoyed.

Miss Bicknell was gowned for the afternoon in turquoise blue tulle with applied flowers, and Miss Lynn wore a black lace gown over satin. Miss Martin's gown was black velvet with American Beauty lining.

The guest list included 25 friends of the young girls.

DEATH NOTICES

Death notices will be inserted without charge if presented for publication by burial director or authorized person.

RICHMOND.—At Baptist Memorial hospital, Dec. 30, 1920, at 7 o'clock, A. C. Bell, 25 years, wife of W. E., mother of Lawrence Eugene Richmond.

Funeral services, conducted by the Revs. W. W. Adams and A. C. Bell, will be held at residence, 622 South Cooper street, tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Friends are invited. Interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

NICHOLS.—At residence of parents, 2155 Madison avenue, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 30, at 12:30 o'clock, Treva Clare, aged 18 months, daughter of Treva Tyler and S. L. Nichols, sister of Rebecca and Sidney Nichols.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. A. C. Bell, will be held at residence tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 11 o'clock. Friends are invited. Interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

ALL OFFICERS AND SIR KNIGHTS of the Order of the Princes, company No. 12, Uniform Rank K. of P., are hereby ordered to be out at their armory, 37 3/4 Third street, Tuesday night, Jan. 4, at 8 o'clock, for election of officers for the year 1921.

Done by order of SIR KNIGHT ROBERT SCOTT.

THE UNIFORM CLUB OF WAYMAN lodge No. 104, K. of P., will meet Sunday, Jan. 2, at 247 Poplar avenue at 2:30 o'clock. Ladies who desire to join the new court should be present at that time.

W. SMITH, President. C. W. SIMONS, Secretary.

Weddings

Bradley-Bostick.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Madison Heights Methodist church on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Mary Antoinette Bradley became the bride of Mr. Edwin Ellis Bostick, the Rev. T. W. Lewis officiating.

The church was decorated with palms and ferns which formed an attractive background for the tall flower vases of Russell roses.

Before the entrance of the bride, Miss Louise Hughes sang "O Promise Me" and "At Dawning," and Miss Pearl Langston played "Traumerl" on the violin. During the ceremony Mrs. H. P. Carter played "Angels Serenade."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Edmond H. Bradley, wore a handsome suit of Pekin blue duveta with accessories in harmony. Her corsage bouquet was of Bride roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. J. W. Nuckolls, sister of the bride, gowned in blue satin with lace overdraperies and wearing a corsage bouquet of pink roses, was the matron of honor.

Little Miss Annie Dee Flinn, wearing a dainty frock of pink tulle trimmed in garlands of French flowers, and carrying a basket of pink rose petals, served as flower girl.

Mr. June H. Rudisill, Jr., was the best man and Messrs. Nolan G. Nuckolls and Bryan O'Daniel were the groomsmen.

The ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bostick left for a Southern bridal trip and on their return, after Jan. 10, will be at home on Waldman boulevard.

Mrs. G. D. Flinn and Mrs. F. G. Smith, of New Orleans, were the out-of-town guests present at the wedding.

Harwell-Marshall.

The numerous friends of Mr. J. W. Marshall, who has for many years been connected with the local offices of the Illinois Central Railroad company, will be delighted to know that he and his charming bride, who was formerly Mrs. Dora L. Harwell, of Atlanta, Ga., have arrived in the city.

They were married at the home of the bride in Atlanta on Dec. 29, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are at the Hotel Chisca for the present.

Announcements

Mrs. Dewey Hostes.

At the dinner-dance in honor of Miss Ellen Craft on Saturday evening at the Country club, Mrs. Curtis Dewey will be the charming hostess. Miss Craft is one of the most popular of the season's debutantes and the affair in her honor is being eagerly anticipated.

D. O. S. Club.

The D. O. S. club will entertain with a dancing party on Friday evening in the home of Miss Evelyn Hall, 336 North Watkins street, in honor of Miss Gertrude Grimore and Messrs. Clyde and Palmer Smallwood, who are home from college for the holidays.

Christmas decorations will be used in the room where dancing will be enjoyed. The chandeliers will be shaded in red and green and banked with snow. About 50 friends will be present.

In Honor of Mrs. Worden.

One of the loveliest and most elaborate luncheons given at the Nineteenth Century club on Saturday will be tendered by members of the choral class in honor of Mrs. Marie Greenwood Worden, director of the class. Mrs. Berry Brooks and Mrs. R. D. Fisher will be in charge of the decorations and the affair promises to be lovely in every detail.

In Honor of Miss Spencer.

Miss Orta Spencer, of Luddington, Mich., who is a guest in the home of Mrs. David Fentress, will be the honoree of the party tendered by Mrs. F. M. Guthrie on Saturday at the New Year's luncheon and dance at the Nineteenth Century club.

Luncheon at Country Club.

Mrs. John B. Clough will compliment Miss Mabel Martin, one of the popular young college girls, with a luncheon at the Country club on New Year's day. The guest list will include college girls and boys who are at home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McGeehee are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a little daughter, Dorothy Williamson. Mrs. McGeehee was formerly Miss Dorothy Williamson and is the daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Williamson.

Here and There

Miss Evelyn Douglas, of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. L. W. Magruder, 375 Stonewall place, for the New Year season. Numerous social affairs have been planned in honor of Miss Douglas, who is both charming and accomplished and has been admired on many occasions the prettiest girl in the South.

David King Fentress, who is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fentress, will leave the first of the week to resume his studies at Mercersburg academy, Pennsylvania.

Miss Orta Spencer, who is spending the holidays as the guest of Miss Cecilia Frith, in the home of her aunt, Mrs. David Fentress, expects to leave on Sunday for her home in Luddington, Mich.

Mrs. Louis Pavia, of New York, formerly Miss Elizabeth Chambers, has been called home by the critical illness of her mother, Mrs. L. N. Chambers, who is source of deep regret to her many friends.

After spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fentress, Mr. James Fentress will return to the S. P. university, in Clarksville, Tenn., leaving on Monday.

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL.

MRS. CAROLINE KEATING REED Resumes Teaching.

Cultivation of the Singing Voice. Breath control. Tone. Diction. Interpretation. Piano instruction given for recitals, accompanying and ensemble. Studio, 1844 Vinton avenue. Tel. Hem. 1544. adv.

Dr. Willis C. Campbell announces the removal of his offices and clinic to his new building, 865 Madison avenue.

SCHOOL TO ENLARGE.

A complimentary permit was issued Thursday afternoon by the city building inspector to the Memphis school board authorizing an addition of four rooms to the Maury school building. The work will amount to about $20,000. The rooms will be used as classrooms when finished. Work is to start at once.

Believe Raine Will Be Granted Pardon By Gov. Roberts

Hunter Wilson, cotton merchant and former district attorney-general for Shelby county, and Hugh Magevney returned Friday from Nashville where they appeared before the pardoning board and appealed to Gov. Roberts to pardon Hunter Raine, who wrecked the old Mercantile bank and served a sentence of about five years in the state prison at Atlanta and recently began to serve a sentence received in the state courts for the same offense.

Mr. Wilson is of the opinion that Gov. Roberts will consider favorably the application for pardon within the next few days. Gov. Roberts was presented with a petition signed by officers and officials of every bank in Memphis, with one exception. The petition was signed by the 12 members of the jury that convicted Raine and Jo L. Hutton, who prosecuted Raine as state bank examiner appeared before Gov. Roberts and urged the pardon.

According to Mr. Wilson all county officers and officials of every bank in Memphis, with one exception, the petition, which was also signed by some of the directors of the wrecked bank. Mr. Wilson was confident that the pardon would be granted and the governor will cause him to take favorable action.

Broker's Widow To Rest In Elmwood

Mrs. W. E. Richmond, died following a short illness, at Baptist hospital, her services at the residence, 122 South Cooper, Saturday. Burial will be in Elmwood.

Mrs. Richmond was an active worker in the Union Avenue Methodist church. She is survived by her husband, one son, Lawrence Eugene Richmond; her father, John Drexler; one brother, Adrian Drexler, and one sister, Mrs. Lotta M. Wood, of Birmingham.

ROAD ASKS LOAN FOR SECOND HAND ENGINE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The borrowed locomotive now used by the Fredericksburg & Northern railroad, a short line in Texas, is about all in, the road told the interstate commerce commission today in making application for a federal loan of $20,000 with which to purchase a new locomotive engine. Unless another locomotive is acquired by spring, the application said, the road will be forced to suspend.

FOR A TAXI PHONE MAIN 784

You'll Find 784 Starter Stations

Gayoso Hotel Chisca Hotel

Peabody Hotel

Always Safe, Reliable, Ready

$3.00 Per Hour

784 Taxi & Auto Co.

HARRY HALL, Mgr.

Phone 784, 785

153 UNION.

Held For Theft Of Suit Cases

Suspected of having stolen several handbags and grips from travelers at the depots, Edna Rumsey, noted police character, and Frank Pruitt, both of whom have served sentences for larceny, were arrested Thursday by Detective Sergs. Heckle and Clark.

Four suitcases were recovered. One was identified by T. T. Towns, Batesville, Miss., as his.

"FOR SWEET LOVERS"

What a delightful greeting and what an appropriate New Year's remembrance is

FLOYD'S FAMOUS CANDIES

The South's Sweetest Product

For 48 Years Floyd's Candies have been famous for their goodness, taste and purity. Try Floyd's now.

40c to $1.50 Per Pound

FLOYD'S, Inc.

ROBT. E. HAGERTY, Pres. 129 North Main St.

YALE GETS MILLION.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 31.—Under the terms of the will of Robert M. Judson, of Yale university, made residuary legatees of the estate which is valued at more than $1,000,000.

Christmas Presents For her at greatly reduced prices.

Miller's Ready-to-Wear, Millinery and Fur Shop 174 SOUTH MAIN ST. Credit Gladly Extended

Fay-Bell Gift Shop

In the Piccadilly Watch Papers for Our After-Xmas Sale 105 South Court Main 2218

"Say It With Flowers"

For Charming Yuletide Greetings, or Lovely New Year's Remembrances, Send—

IDLEWILD Flowers

"Choicest That Grow"

Special Flower Greetings, $3 to $25 Each

Idlewild Greenhouses

89 South Main St. Phone Main 1738.